NAMI Ventura County's Parents and Teachers as Allies is an in-service program that helps school professionals and families better understand the early warning signs of mental illnesses in children and adolescents.

This program is part of NAMI Ventura County's Education series, which raises awareness of mental health issues, erases stigma and fosters hope.

In-service topics include:

1. Recognizing early-onset mental illness in children and adolescents
2. Understanding family reactions to mental illness and guidelines for helping families
3. Learning about available community resources
4. Strengthening the alliance between parents and school professionals.
