Check one for the Quarter that these questions apply:

Quarter 1

Semester 1

Semester 2

Suggested Questions:

1. How many members signed up for your club in the beginning of the school year?
2. Now that your club has been in session, how many active members do you have in your club?
3. If your membership numbers have dropped significantly, what do you attribute this to?
4. Have your meetings been consistent:
 - a. If not, why?
 - b. If not, what can you do to improve the consistency of your meetings?
5. What were your initial goals?
6. What measures have you taken to accomplish those goals?
7. In general, what is working well?
8. In general, what is not working well?
9. Has your club participated in any special events already this quarter/semester?

10. Has the communication between you and your club members been productive?

- a. If how you are communicating with members, is not working, in what ways can this be improved?

11. Do you feel that your officers are working equally together?

12. Do you feel that all members of your club are engaged?

- a. If not, what can you do to improve this?

13. Is there anything else that you would like to inform us about your club?

14. Do you have any ideas on how ASB can inform the Administration and Student Body of special events, accomplishments and/or activities that your club is involved in – a sort of “reflection on what clubs are up to”?

15. In the ASB Constitution, Article IV, Section IV, states:

“All approved clubs and organizations must promote the general welfare of the students body and be of service to the high school in the form of an activity or project agreed upon by all club presidents established at the beginning of the school year.”

What ideas of “service to the high school in the form of an activity or project that all clubs could be involved in,” might work?
