

Ms. Allison
Remaking the World Through Preemptive Love

In these divided times, it's not always easy to choose love. Former English teacher Alex Allison shares how living in Iraq taught her that, to really love someone is to seek — and share — their many stories

Come hear inspiring stories of recovery

A close-up photograph of a pair of hands, palms up, holding a small, torn piece of white paper. The word "HOPE" is printed in bold, black, serif capital letters on the paper. The hands are light-skinned and appear to be belonging to a child or young person. The background is dark and out of focus. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, dark, triangular graphic element featuring a white silhouette of a globe.
