

CERTIFICATED PERSONNEL APPLICATION

Thank you for your recent inquiry regarding certificated openings in the Oak Park Unified School District.

In order to qualify for screening by the site administrators, you must submit a complete application packet that includes the following:

- The completed application and signed form
- An up-to-date resume
- A complete photocopy of your transcripts
- A photocopy of your valid credential
- A photocopy of your CBEST result card (if required)
- Letters of recommendation that reflect the last five years of your career and / or student teaching evaluations
- WRITING PROMPT: Must be completed by each applicant as an indication of writing skills and educational knowledge. You may need to address writing prompt to a particular position other than "teacher".

The new California Standards have ushered in many changes to teaching and learning. Discuss the ways that the New Standards have informed your practice to focus on collaboration and critical thinking.

Only complete application packets will be chosen for interviews and not all applicants are invited to interview. Screening of applications may take place at anytime throughout the year, with peak hiring periods taking place between May and September.

If you have any questions, please contact Debbie Cooper at dcooper@opusd.org
Again, thank you for your interest in Oak Park Unified School District.

California law requires that all employees of public schools be fingerprinted for the purpose of investigating criminal conviction records. Conviction of a crime does not automatically exclude applicants from employment with our District. The types, dates, and number of offense(s), current status, special circumstances, and other factors may be considered. Minor traffic offenses are not reportable.

I HAVE NEVER BEEN CONVICTED OF ANY VIOLATION OF THE LAW.

I HAVE BEEN CONVICTED OF THE FOLLOWING VIOLATION (S) OF THE LAW.

List each violation of the law for which you have been convicted including those during military service. Convictions include any offenses for which you forfeited bail, were fined and/or jailed, or placed on probation. Do not include minor traffic violations, arrests that did not result in a charge or charges that did not result in conviction. (Note: You must disclose your conviction even if the case was dismissed pursuant to Penal Code Section 1203.4.)
