

Learning to Write Right

Student Name/Period:

Keep this writing resource in your writing binder all year.

Proper Form for Written Work

Paper: Use standard-sized 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 11-inch paper for handwritten class work. Avoid using spiral notebook paper unless as part of a log or a journal. Use standard-sized 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 11 inch, 20-pound, white, multi-purpose, photocopy or computer paper for printed work.

Margins: Set the margins to 1-inch on all sides (top, bottom, left, and right). Use the same format for handwritten work.

Font Size: Use a 12-point typeface.

Typeface Font: Use a legible font like Book, Times New Roman, or 20th Century. Avoid stylized typefaces, especially those with curly-cues.

Heading and Title: All papers must have a heading and title. The heading must be placed in the upper right-hand of all pages of an assignment. The heading must include your first and last name, date, and period number. The title must be centered on the first line of the assignment. Original titles do not require underlining or quotation marks.

Line Spacing: All work should be double-spaced unless directed otherwise.

Paragraphing: Each paragraph must have its first word indented five spaces.

Drafts: Save all drafts of your paper. You might be asked to hand them in with the final copy.

Printer/Computer Problems: If you have a problem with your printer or computer, you must solve it before the paper is due or submit a hand-written copy using blue or black ink. Make sure you back-up all work on a flash drive.

MLA Style: Modern Language Association style provides a standardized format for Works Cited. Refer to the Purdue Online Writing Lab for resources on MLA style, the writing process, grammar, mechanics, research and citations (http://owl.english.purdue.edu). BibMe (http://bibme.org), and Easy Bib (http://easybib.com) helps students create a Works Cited page with its automatic formatting.

Capitalization Rules

Rule 1: Capitalize a proper noun.

Example: The game will be played at Staples Center.

Rule 2: Capitalize the first word of a quoted sentence.

Example: "Look out!" she yelled. "You almost ran over my daughter."

Rule 3: Capitalize the titles of high-ranking government officials when used before their names. Do not capitalize the civil title if it is used instead of the name.

Examples: I spoke with President Obama last evening.

I spoke with the president last evening.

Rule 4: Capitalize points of the compass only when they refer to specific regions/areas.

Example: For vacation this summer, we are going up North.

To find the house, travel west two miles.

Rule 5: Capitalize the first word of a salutation and the first word of a closing in a letter.

Example: My dear friend James,

Very truly yours,

Rule 6: Capitalize the names of specific course titles.

Example: I must take Algebra 2 and language arts next year.

Rule 7: Capitalize the first word of a sentence.

Example: The party was a lot of fun.

Rule 8: Capitalize the main words in a title.

Example: Where the Red Fern Grows

Using Quotation Marks Correctly

Rule 1: Use quotation marks to enclose a person's exact words – a direct quotation.

Example: The coach predicted, "It will be a close game."

Rule 2: When a quoted sentence is divided into two parts by an interrupting expression, the second part does not begin with a capital letter.

Example: "Violent storms have always awed people," explained Mr. Jones, "and many of us are still frightened by them."

Rule 3: A period or comma following a quotation should be placed inside the closing quotation marks.

Example: "Dinner will be served shortly," said the butler.

Rule 4: A question mark or an exclamation point should be placed inside the quotation marks if the quotation is a question or exclamation. Otherwise, it should be placed outside the quotation marks.

Examples: "How far have we traveled?" asked the tired man.
Who said, "Give me liberty or give me death"?

Rule 5: When you write dialogue, begin a new paragraph every time the speaker changes.

"I am not sure," Jerome replied, "but maybe we can go early and catch a bite to eat."

"That sounds great."

Rule 6: When a quotation consists of several sentences, put quotation marks only at the beginning and end of the entire quotation, not around each sentence.

Rule 7: Use single quotation marks to enclose a quotation within a quotation.

Example: "Let's sing 'God Bless America', " suggested Chris.

Rule 8: Use quotation marks to enclose the titles of chapters, articles, short stories, poems, songs, and other parts of books and periodicals.

Example: "Imagine" is a song by John Lennon.

Dialogue Tips...

RULE #1: A direct quotation begins with a capital letter.

Jimmy shouted, "See you at the game!" "Is it true?" asked Cindy.

RULE #2: When a quotation is interrupted into two parts with words like "he asked" or "the teacher demanded," the second part begins with a lower case letter.

"What are some of the things," Mrs. Baskin inquired, "that make school so much fun?"

"One thing I like," replied Sarah, "is recess!"

RULE #3: When writing dialogue, all punctuation marks at the end of the quotation go inside the quotation marks.

"Let's visit the museum," suggested Samantha.

Jon replied, "Didn't we go there last weekend?"

"But when we did," Beth added, "we didn't see the Ancient Egyptian exhibit."

RULE #4: Do not put a period at the end of a quotation followed by things like she said, mom asked, he explained, etc. Use commas, question marks, and exclamation marks but not periods. Periods end sentences.

"My Algebra class is driving me crazy!" Paul yelled. "That's my favorite class," Becky replied.

RULE #5: Make a new paragraph (indent) when a different person begins to speak.

"Last night, I dreamt that I ate a giant marshmallow," Kevin said.

"Was that anything like the dream you had about eating your way through a mountain of fruit cocktail?" asked Suzy.

"Scarier," Kevin explained. "This time I woke up and my pillow was gone."

OTHER REMINDERS:

-Always make it clear who is speaking in the dialogue.

-Try to avoid using the word "said" repeatedly.

Writing Numbers

Rule 1: Spell out single-digit whole numbers. Use numerals for numbers greater than nine.

Examples: I want six copies of the poem.

I want 10 copies of the poem.

Rule 2: Be consistent within a category. If you choose numerals because one of the numbers is greater than nine, use numerals for all numbers in that category. If you choose to spell out numbers because one of the numbers is a single digit, spell out all numbers in that category. Example: My 14 friends and I went to 2 parties that weekend.

My fourteen friends and I went to two parties that weekend.

Rule 3: Always spell out simple fractions and use hyphens with them.

Example: One-third of the cake has been eaten.

Rule 4: A mixed fraction can be written in figures unless it is the first word of a sentence.

Example: I expect my allowance to increase by 7 ½ percent.

Seven and one-half percent was the increase in my allowance.

Rule 5: Write decimals in figures. Put a zero in front of a decimal unless the decimal itself begins with a zero.

Example: I grew 0.75 feet in one year!

I grew .07 feet in one year.

Rule 6: When writing decades, you may spell them out using lowercase form.

Example: During the eighties, disco was popular.

Rule 7: If you wish to write decades using incomplete numerals, put an apostrophe before the incomplete numeral but not between the year and the "s".

Example: During the late '90s, rap music became popular.

Rule 8: Spell out the time of day. With o'clock, the number is always spelled out.

Example: Her alarm wakes her at seven o'clock on weekday mornings.

Rule 9: Use numerals with the time of day when exact times are being emphasized or when using A.M. or P.M.

Examples: My flight to Florida leaves at 8:30 A.M.

Please arrive at 6:00 sharp.

Rule 10: When spelling out numbers greater than nine, hyphenate all compound numbers from twenty-one through ninety-nine.

Rule 11: Spell out a number if it begins a sentence.

Example: Thirty-three people were invited to the party.

Transitional Words and Phrases

Transitions are used to link one sentence to another within a paragraph. They make writing flow from one idea to the next. Transitions are also used to connect paragraphs in logical organization.

Below is a list of the most common transitional words and phrases.

Effective Writing Strategies

Rule 1: Use concrete rather than vague language.

Example: Los Angeles recorded the hottest temperature in the country yesterday.

Not (vague): Los Angeles had extreme weather yesterday.

Rule 2: Use active voice whenever possible. Active voice means the subject is performing the verb.

Example: John ate the entire cake. (active)

Not:

The entire cake was eaten. (passive)

Rule 3: Avoid overusing there is, there are, it is, it was, that, and so on.

Example: A case of Swine Flu was reported last week.

Not:

There was a case of Swine Flu that was reported last week.

Rule 4: Do not use two negatives to make a positive.

Example: My friend is willing to help clean the beach.

Not: My friend is not unwilling to help clean the beach.

Rule 5: Use parallel sentence structure when writing several ideas.

Example: You should check your spelling, grammar, and punctuation.

Not:

You should check your spelling, grammar, and punctuating.

Rule 6: If you start a sentence with an action, place the actor immediately after.

Example: While walking across the street, she was hit by a bus.

Not: While walking across the street, the bus hit her.

Rule 7: Place adjectives and adverbs (modifiers) near the words they describe.

Example: In my lunchbox, I have a sandwich Mom made.

Not: I have a sandwich Mom made in my lunchbox.

Rule 8: Make sure all of your sentences are complete thoughts.

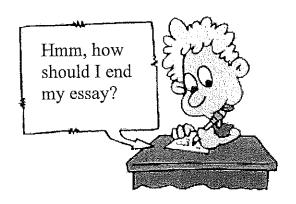

Concluding Devices

There are many ways you can conclude an essay, but keep in mind the following:

- restating/rephrasing the thesis (follow teacher directions)
- leave the reader with something to think about
- strive to be relevant, clear, and concise

The following are a few suggestions for conclusions you can use.

- 1. Conclude with a final opinion or judgment based on the information you presented. This is a good conclusion to use when writing about a controversial subject.
- 2. Conclude with an anecdote (very short story) that emphasizes your main point.
- 3. Conclude with a comparison/analogy
- 4. Conclude by asking the reader a parting question that relates to the thesis.
- 5. Conclude with a convincing statement about the importance of your thesis. This conclusion works well when persuading someone.
