

2019/2020 ENGLISH DEPARTMENT NOVELS FOR SALE

Each year, students read a selection of novels in their respective English classes. As a convenience to families and as a voluntary fundraiser, the PFA offers these novels for sale during registration. While students are not required to purchase textbooks and can check out a textbook or novel* for free from the OPHS bookstore, they are not permitted to write or take notes in the school-owned books. As such, if your student(s) would like to retain their own copy to make notations in, this voluntary fundraiser is an easy way to purchase the exact editions of the novels being used while helping to support the PFA at the same time!

It is a win-win in that it saves your family a trip to the bookstore if you were going to purchase these novels anyway, and the PFA receives 20% of the funds raised.

The PFA has included grade level & class-specific order forms with these registration materials. Books will be distributed during registration and are only being sold by the PFA during registration. Please note: some teachers require specific editions of books. If you are going to purchase novels on your own, please visit the English department webpage to find a list of specific ISBN#s. Thank you for your support!

NOTE: This is an optional fundraiser for the PFA that is a PFA-provided service to OPHS families.

*Students will be provided the opportunity to borrow these novels from the school; however, novels borrowed from the school may not be written or highlighted in.

To purchase novels, please complete the form on page 2 or 3 of this document.

Cash or a check made payable to OPHS PFA must be attached to this form and brought with you to registration.
